King's Tales: The Morbid Cheers of Muddled Souls Abram King

What is life without a bit a risk
To become nothing but a frisk
Is something we'd all but miss
Just as trees have fees
And a fruitful melon seeds
You must but plead freed.

Novels are all but weary. Tune into a collection of short stories that will leave you with a feeling of uncertainty and remorse for the events that occur if you please. Just be aware of the intentional manipulation of language and the dreary setting you may find yourself in. Unless, of course, there is another way you end up interpreting this...

This contains four short stories, each with an ending that isn't quite clear in all ways...
