Maybe I'll Pitch Forever [Paperback] [1993] (Author) Leroy Satchel Paige, John B. Holway, David Lipman

Not only was Satchel Paige an amazing athlete, he was one of the great American humorists in the tradition of Mark Twain, Will Rogers, and Yogi Berra. The most famous black player of his era shines through the pages of this remarkable autobiography—John B. Holway, Lipman..has preserved the flavor and cadence of Paige's conversation and writes his story honestly, avoiding neither the tragedies nor the escapades which mark his career. That inimitable personality is recalled in an introduction by John B. Holway, the author of Voice from the Great Black Baseball Leagues (1992). David Lipman's afterword describes the last twenty years of Paige's life, including the proud moment in 1971 when he became one of the first great players from the Negro Leagues to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame.
