The Identity Society William Glasser

The nationally acclaimed author of Reality Therapy and Schools Without Failure has revised and made more accessible The Identity Society, the book that carries forward his ideas of reality therapy into the field of sociology. Dr. Glasser covers in this book almost all human motivation and behavior. He applies his theory and knowledge specifically to the many aspects of modern life: rearing children and reducing cultural gap; criminal justice; hospitals and welfare; the vast failure-oriented horde; treatment of addicts, parolees, welfare recipients, the maladjusted. Professionals, parents, politicians, businessmen, penologists, ministers, and teachers will find this new edition of invaluable help.
