Manipulation, intimidation, and sexual conquest. These were the tools of prosperity in a competitive college town, or so Darren Bryce was taught by his experiences within the mainstream social scene of Tallahassee. In FRATIRE III, Bryce has risen to the next level of the social status pyramid but is still struggling to climb even higher in his pursuit of lust and power as he walks the fine grey line between having a girlfriend and being single. And the closer Bryce gets to the inner circle of popularity, the more he comes to realize that a social world revolving so much around beauty is truly an ugly place indeed. Bryce exposes it all: Greek Life, clubbing, hazing, one-night stands, Rush Week, strip clubs, date functions, Frat house bashes, keg party brawls, and the lewdest of drunken humor. This is the uncensored story of what really happens in the wildest of college towns.
