Shock Jock Derek Carranza

When it comes to saying exactly what's on his mind, no matter who he insults, SANDER RUBIN is number one. He's the most popular and controversial radio talk show host in Los Angeles, CA. His afternoon drive program Are You Listening? has made him a rich and famous man. But aside from his large following, he also has millions of detractors who want nothing more than to get him kicked off the air for his racy talk format. In Sander's mind he'll always be on top and never be out of work -- his listeners need him too much. Until one night a deranged listener abducts him and proposes an ultimatum: quit or else. Instead of getting the authorities involved he opts for hiring a private detective and investigating the matter himself. He ends up discovering some unpleasant and strange things about his employers at BNO studios. Could they be involved? Sander handles the situation with humor, detachment and rationality, much like he does his show. Filled with lots of comedy, suspense, and satire, Shock Jock is a unique novel with a very interesting protagonist.
