The Rochester Reaping T E Ridener

Morgan Amburgy is twenty four years old. She lives in Rochester, Kentucky where she tries to survive day to day without succumbing to a constant depression that threatens to take over. She struggles with the loss of a beloved friend who was taken all too soon during high school, but with the help of her friends she carries on. Things become weird when Morgan is suddenly able to see her best friend. But it's not the one with a pulse. She begins to question her sanity as she demands answers from everyone else instead of seeking it from the one person who could clear up everything in the first place. Herself.
