Grand Map of London for Diplomats and Merchants: High Resolution Canvas Wall Map Anna Butler, Taige Zhang

This vintage 1800s style wall map took over three years to produce and accurately describes the capital city of London in 2012 during the reign of Queen Elizabeth II showing major streets, markets, churches, great houses, neighbourhoods and public buildings. Hand-drawn in England by our chief cartographer and artist A. Butler, this rare map is one of the few contemporary maps still made in the historical style, incorporating symbolic and traditional elements of maps used by travellers and explorers of past centuries.

Extending from Kensington Palace Gardens to Tower of London, this canvas print map measures 170 x 100 cm and makes a strong statement as decoration in any home or office. Our maps are made to enchant anyone who loves history and appreciates art. Some of our top customers include City of London, bookshops, galleries and hotels.
