In this sequel to "Dr. Elder and the Zetons", it is a time of peace on Mars after the Republic of Mars has declared its independence from America, and has successfully repulsed the American invasion fleet. After their honeymoon, John and Anna Elder relax on Mars with their seven adopted Afro-Martian children. The newly-elected American president, Nathaniel Jefferson, seems warmly benevolent with unprecedented voter approval.

However, one day John's youngest daughter, Gloria, suddenly declares that Jefferson is a "white-washed sepulcher"! Does she have the wisdom of Solomon? Or is she a prophetess?

Without quite understanding why, Dr. Elder decides to lead his wife and seven children to Earth to investigate Jefferson's possible hidden crimes. They travel on a new fusion-powered spacecraft called the Firefly. The whole Elder family becomes involved in a tangled trail of hypocrisy, intrigue, espionage, bribery, slander, adultery, and corruption. They proceed by prayer, trust in God, and dependence upon their guardian angels Zeton and Evangelica. Along the way the Elder family discusses fate, determinism, chance, free will, the power of prayer, the Theories of Evolution and Intelligent Design, and why things happen in the Universe.

Will John and his family be able to stop World War 3?
