??? Excerpt:

Watering Jenna's flowers, Josh heard a scream from inside the house. Tossing down the hose, he ran inside as fast as humanly possible. As he plowed into the kitchen, he took in Jake's red face turned toward the wall and Jenna, her face even redder, clutching a dishtowel to her chest as she slowly backed out of the kitchen. Her outfit, at least what he could see around the dishtowel, made his eyes widen in astonishment.

Glad he wore a shirt that snapped up the front, Josh quickly yanked it loose, slipped it around Jenna, and swept her into his arms. There was no way she could beat a hasty retreat down the hall in the shoes she wore. Carrying her to their bedroom, he kicked the door shut and dropped her on the bed. Standing up, he gaped at her for several long, silent moments.

"What are you doing?" he finally asked in a rough voice. He felt confused, annoyed and wildly excited all at the same time as he ogled his wife. "You aren't supposed to be home until this evening."
