Guilty Until Proven Innocent a True Story of False Arrest, Lies, Intimidation and Vindication R.G. Retelle

On April 5th, 2006, my son Chris was arrested in Hazel Park Michigan and charged with 2nd Degree Home Invasion. He didn't match the description of the suspects, wasn't wearing what the suspects were described as wearing and wasn't the height or weight of the suspects. He had an alibi, but the Hazel Park Police weren't interested. They had to arrest someone for the crime and Chris was the only person they found out walking that night. Guilty Until Proven Innocent, details the events from April 5th, 2006, through January 17th, 2007. From uncooperative police officers, to unscrupulous lawyers, to the prosecutor that had a video surveillance tape in her possession, proving my son was shopping at the time of the reported break-in and simply ignored it. The book describes the non-investigation by the Hazel Park Police and how they fabricated a case against my son. Calling in a K9 cop and his dog Nikko, from the Madison Hts. Michigan Police to help with a fake K9 tracking report. Guilty Until Proven Innocent, details my own investigation into the man claiming he'd seen my son in his house. With Internet background checks, State Police Criminal checks, searching court records and Freedom of Information requests. The book describes our feelings of frustration, anger and stress, until an attorney named Sid Suo came into our lives. He gave us hope and confidence, believed in us and gave us the will to beat this false charge. Guilty Until Proven Innocent lists the things you should and shouldn't do if you find yourself in police custody. For example, do you know your Miranda rights? Last but not least, Guilty Until Proven Innocent describes a promise made, and a promise kept. Told in an honest, straight forward style, Guilty Until Proven Innocent is a true story, THAT COULD HAPPEN TO YOU.
