Malo's Amazing Adventures! - Excitement Along the River Washington M. Osiro

In this first episode of Malo's Amazing Adventures!, our global explorer visits the village of Apondo, Kenya where his father was born and grew up as a little boy. During the visit, Malo strikes an immediate friendship with his cousins Omondi and Omolo; friendships that allow him to experience village life through the eyes of his cousins; a life at once familiar yet remarkably different from what the young American is used to. A day spent with his dad and his cousins herding the family's livestock provides Malo with an experience of a lifetime. "Andrew and Kiersten will not believe when I tell them about the day I spent with Omondi and Omolo looking after the animals," Malo excitedly tells his dad. "Maybe they will," replies his dad. Read on to find out what our young explorer discovers and experiences in the 'simple and familiar' plains of western Kenya while looking after the family's livestock!
