No one expected the University of Hawaii basketball team to win the Western Athletic Conference championship — no one, that is, but the players and coaches themselves. In this fascinating sports/motivational title, UH head coach Riley Wallace recounts how a diverse group of players from all over the world earned a bid to the "Big Dance" — the 2001 NCAA Championship Tournament. Co-written with team psychologists Michael D'Andrea and Judy Daniels, The Rainbow Circle of Excellence shows how lessons learned on the court can help members of any group lead successful, more satisfying lives.
