Caring for a Loved One with Cancer June Hunt

How do you help someone who receives a devastating diagnosis? Is there anything you can do to make a real difference?

Cancer survivor June Hunt shares proven, practical ways to care for loved ones with a critical illness—ways that made all the difference in her own battle with cancer.

This book is a carefully crafted collection of ideas to help caregivers minister to loved ones who are suffering from cancer or chronic illness. Each short, single-topic chapter is full of specific things to do and not to do—to say and not to say—to be of maximum help at each bend in the road.

Along with fifty practical ways to help, June includes sections such as:

- Tips for Temporary Trials (how to cope with chemotherapy)
- Don't Forget about the Children (when a parent has cancer)
- For Those Who Need Spiritual Healing (putting your faith into action)
- Discover the Important Don'ts (what you really need to know)

Learn how to lighten the load of those weighed down with cancer and to walk beside them on this difficult journey.
