The Tale Of Jack Frost Marcia T. Jones

A festive winter story about how little Jack, the youngest, smallest boy in his village, grew up to become the legendary Jack Frost.

Before Jack Frost was famously nipping at your nose, he was known as little Jack, the youngest, smallest child in a village near the North Pole. Absolutely nobody paid attention to Jack. His sister could make snowflakes. His brother could make wind. His cousin could make water freeze. Everyone could DO things. Everyone, that is, except Jack.

But when he finally discovers his own exciting winter power, Jack is greeted by cheers and admiration from his entire village. He is even given a perfect nickname, which he goes by to this day: Jack Frost!
