A Qur'aanic Odyssey is for all who are interested, including parents who are helping to coach their children in learning and memorizing Qur'aan or more general Qur'aanic study. The author also hopes to reach out to non-Muslims, especially any who may be linked to cross-cultural families, trying to navigate and understand some of the intricacies of the 'culture' of Islam, especially with regard to the Qur'aan. In addition, the text may be used in a classroom environment including by teachers, of any faith or conviction, who seek to present Islam and more specifically the Qur'aan in a positive 'real life' 'Western' environment. Through her storytelling, the author aspires to demonstrate that the 'culture' of the Qur'aan and Islam may be complementary to the West. The narrative is based on Ibrahim aged five, Amna aged two. Embarking on a journey of Hifdh (Qur'aanic memorization) with their mother Khadija and father Abdurrahman. This story emphasizes love for the Qur'aan in a thoughtful manner. The learning and understanding come to life in the most unexpected ways. Through the eyes and hearts of this young family, we learn about courage and patience. We learn to look inwards and reflect on the journey ahead.
