Protegee: A Novel C. C. Avram

A mainstream novel about a woman who must learn to love from a position of strength rather than weakness. Andrea Jacobson, sophisticated an powerful, has always managed to control the lives of those around her. Sex, power and business triumphs are her anodyne to mask heartbreak and fear. But when this strikingly beautiful woman's carefully constructed world begins to collapse she must either accept or reject the adage: When the student is ready the teacher will come.
