New York advertising executive Olivia McDougle discovers her fiancé with another woman. She flees to her childhood home in Rexford, Ohio, and takes over the family newspaper. Olivia falls in love with Dr. Mitch James but their wedding plans are destroyed after she writes an editorial exposing the misdeeds of a powerful, local judge. The judge retaliates by spreading lies and rumors about her, which divide the town. Olivia discovers that standing by her editorial has put her life in danger, and neither her friends nor Mitch can help her avert a catastrophic confrontation. .
